

MY BROTHER

You broke the chain,
That you and I had.
It broke my heart,
To lose you, But
You didn't go alone,
Because part of my heart,
Went with you.
Life doesn't seem the same,
With your "Loving Smile",
"Your Caring Heart",
Your many specialized meals,
And our different opinions "With Love".
Although I can't see you,
You left me with so many "Memories",
But as God calls us one by one,
We will link again.
Loving and missing you!

Your Sister,
Mozella

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
So He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to me."
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest,
God's garden must be beautiful.
He only takes the best.
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you back,
To suffer that again.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the family of the late Jesse Jefferson, III, extend our sincere love and appreciation to those who have shown kindness during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless you all.

OBITUARY

Mr. Jesse Jefferson Flournoy, III was born on February 23, 1949, to the late Jesse Jefferson and Bertha Lee Flournoy. He entered into eternal rest on September 9, 2021.

Affectionately known as "Jesse, Jr.," he was a graduate of Lucy C. Laney High School, Class of 1968. He was employed with Menardi Criswell until he retired.

Jesse had a heart of gold and was a friend to many. He never met a stranger. He also loved singing and most of all, cooking.

Jesse was preceded in death by: one son, Lawarren Flournoy; six brothers; and five sisters.

He leaves in his loving memory: two daughters, Letisha (Shon) Cobb of McDonough, Georgia, and Lakia Holmes of Augusta, Georgia; three sons, Jesse Flournoy, II, Justin Flournoy, and Ja'Quez Flournoy, all of Augusta, Georgia; three sisters, Elizabeth Harrison, Willie Jennett (Richard) Miller, and Mozella Flournoy, all of Augusta, Georgia; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends.

Jesse was loved by many and will be greatly missed.
